Circle the pictures that best describe how every living thing felt when young Jesus was near.

“The child Jesus did not receive instruction in the synagogue schools. His mother was His first human teacher. From her lips and from the scrolls of the prophets, He learned of heavenly things. The very words which He Himself had spoken to Moses for Israel He was now taught at His mother’s knee. As He advanced from childhood to youth, He did not seek the schools of the rabbis. He needed not the education to be obtained from such sources; for God was His instructor.” The Desire of Ages, pg. 70

“God had commanded the Hebrews to teach their children His requirements and to make them acquainted with all His dealings with their fathers. This was one of the special duties of every parent—one that was not to be delegated to another. In the place of stranger lips the loving hearts of the father and mother were to give instruction to their children. Thoughts of God were to be associated with all the events of daily life. The mighty works of God in the deliverance of His people and the promises of the Redeemer to come were to be often recounted in the homes of Israel; and the use of figures and symbols caused the lessons given to be more firmly fixed in the memory. The great truths of God’s providence and of the future life were impressed on the young mind. It was trained to see God alike in the scenes of nature and the words of revelation. The stars of heaven, the trees and flowers of the field, the lofty mountains, the rippling brooks—all spoke of the Creator. The solemn service of sacrifice and worship at the sanctuary and the utterances of the prophets were a revelation of God.

“Such was the training of Moses in the lowly cabin home in Goshen; of Samuel, by the faithful Hannah; of David, in the hill dwelling at Bethlehem; of Daniel, before the scenes of the captivity separated him from the home of his fathers. Such, too, was the early life of Christ at Nazareth; such the training by which the child Timothy learned from the lips of his grandmother Lois, and his mother Eunice (2

Timothy 1:5; 3:15), the truths of Holy Writ.”
Patriarchs and Prophets, pg. 592

The dictionary says the meaning for subject is: “one that is placed under authority or control.” That simply means that Jesus was under the authority of, or obedient to, his parents.

There are lots of verses in the Bible that talk about children obeying their parents. As you read these four texts, put the signs in front of each reference beside the corresponding scriptures below.

$ Ephesians 6:1

@ Colossians 3:20

% Proverbs 6:20

Exodus 20:12

- “Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the Lord your God is giving you.”
- “My son, keep your father’s command, And do not forsake the law of your mother.”
- “Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.”
- “Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing to the Lord.”
